

Icoteria A/S appoints new CEO to drive international growth

In recent years, Icoteria A/S has established a strong position as an innovative Fiber-to-the-Home partner for standard setting network owners and service providers in Europe. With focus on providing customers with a unique and co-created product solution, Icoteria has realized significant growth and is now among the leading suppliers of Fiber CPE solutions in Europe.

After 6 years as CEO of Icoteria A/S, Peter Lund has wished to pass on the management to a new CEO to further strengthen the company's product offering and international growth. Peter will take on an active role on the board of directors and will continue to provide strong support to the new management of Icoteria.

Effective December 11, 2017, the board of directors has appointed René Brøchner new CEO of Icoteria A/S. René, who holds a M.Sc. in Business Administration from Copenhagen Business School, has a successful background from various management positions in the telecom- and internet service provider industry. René has most recently held executive management positions within the TDC Group, among others head of YouSee and TDC Consumer, the two leading Danish service providers within broadband , telco- and TV services.

“René understands the challenges of our customers and is a strong and execution oriented innovator. René will guarantee that both existing and new customers receive optimal solutions customized to their needs”, says Carsten Dilling, Chairman of Icoteria A/S.

“René has been on the board of directors of Icoteria for the past year. Here he has managed to inspire and ensure a strong focus on customers and combine both business- and product innovation. I am confident that René will lead Icoteria to its next stage of growth and look forward to support him on the journey”, says Peter Lund, CEO of Icoteria A/S.

“We operate in an exciting and rapidly changing market that requires agility and focus on the ability to accelerate. I am thrilled to take on the CEO role. I look forward to be able to combine my insights into the future needs of our customers with the unique and innovative skills of the many talented colleagues at Icoteria”, says René Brøchner.
